NOTES AND COMMENTS.
The Philippine question is undergoing yet another phase and history is repeating itself. According to Reuters, Spain is raising the contention that the surrender of Manila is invalid on account of its being subsequent to the signature of the treaty of peace. (Evidently a correction.—Ed. H.K.T.)

NEGOTIATIONS TO BE CONTINUED IN PARIS.
According to a telegram from Mr. Miyagawa, the Japanese Chargé d'Affaires at Washington, a Convention for an armistice between the United States and Spain was signed on the 19th inst. between President McKinley and M.
Cambo, the French Ambassador to Washington. In the Convention, it was stipulated that the plenipotentiaries of America and Spain should arrive in Paris not later than the 1st October next with full powers to conclude a Treaty of Peace.

SETTLEMENT OF THE HAWAIIAN QUESTION.
TOKYO, August 19th.

An official report was received to-day to the effect that the Japanese Government had reduced the amount of indemnity claimed from Hawaii to ¥10,000,000. Negotiations were concluded at the end of July, and Mr. Hirai, the Japanese Consul at Honolulu, on behalf of the Japanese Government, received payment of the money on the 19th inst. and the question has thus been finally settled.

[The amount originally claimed was ¥20,000,000, and friends of the Government claimed that it would not be reduced by one ten.—Ed. H.K.T.] ple when the distribution takes place. The actions of Germany during the progress of the war have frequently led one to believe that, if not exactly hand and glove with Spain she is at least antagonistic to the United States, and the Spaniards have been led to look upon her as a possible mediator in the quarrel. Germany has been accused of casting avaricious eyes upon the islands and therefore she may be expected to take a part in the Concert should there be any attempt to oust the United States from Manila. It has been rumoured that negotiations were proceeding between France and Spain for the sale of the islands to the former Power as a means of settling existing difficulties, while Russia has suddenly discovered that the islands should be ruled for a time by a concert of the Powers in order that the existing state of chaos may be remedied.

We thus have three possible champions of Spain presumably willing to lend their aid in ousting the Americans, and all of whom would be only too delighted should it be possible to obtain the islands or a portion of them for themselves. Germany wants a coaling station, France probably requires the same and anything more that she can get, while it cannot for a moment be doubted that Russia would willingly grab the whole archipelago should a favourable opportunity offer. In the mean time, the Americans are in possession and feeling in the United States is growing to be more and more in favour of the islands being permanently retained as a part of the spoils of war. We have not as yet been informed that the terms of peace have been framed by the United States Government and it is only too probable that the present talk of possible opposition and European control, coupled with the protests of Spain, may lead to the terms of peace being much more sweeping in their demands than was at first supposed.

The American people have apparently awakened to the fact of the value of the Philippine islands as a naval base from their commanding position, of the Eastern coast of Asia and they will most likely decide that it will be better to hold the whole archipelago themselves than, by allowing European Control to be formed for their control, to permit hostile Powers to obtain all the advantages after they have done all the work and incurred all the expense. It is most unlikely that they will allow Germany, France and Russia to obtain a footing in the Philippines as the outcome of the war with Spain.
The Americans may restore the islands to the Spaniards, but should they so decide on the distinct understanding that no portion of them is to be alienated to any other Power without the consent of the United States having been first obtained. Otherwise we fall to see how the United States can hope to protect their own great interests in the Far East.

THE CHARGES AGAINST THE VICE-

TOKYO, August 19th.
It is reported that the Government has decided to dismiss Mr. Yamada, the Vice-Minister for Justice, as a disciplinary measure, on account of the charges brought against him of using undue influence in the recent election.
Conference is actively going on between Mr.
Yokota, the Procurator-in-Chief in the Court of Cassation, and Mr. Nozaki, Chief Procurator in the Tokyo Court of Appeal, in regard to the alleged irregular use of judicial power by Mr.
Yamada, the Vice-Minister for Justice, in connection with his campaign in the Parliamentary elections.

Mr. Yamada, who is being prosecuted by Mr.

WEATHER REPORT.
The Observatory report to-day says:—On the 23rd at 11.40 a.m.: The depression appears to be situated to the N. N. E. of N. Formosa moving slowly Northwards. The barometer has fallen slightly on the E. coast of China, and has commenced to rise in the Formosa Channel.
FORECAST:—Moderate S.W. winds; cloudy, probably some thunder showers.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.
The steamer Omi Maru brought treasure from Kobe to the value of $67,000.

DURING the week ending 20th August there were no cases of communicable disease reported in the Colony.

The return of the number of visitors to the City Hall Museum for the week ended August 21st was:—Europeans, 170; Chinese, 1,646; total 1,816.

For feloniously entering No. 1 Lyndhurst Terrace and stealing therefrom property belonging to Miss Sally Mohamed Ismail a coolie who had previous convictions recorded against him received a sentence of four months' hard labour.

COMMANDER HASTINGS, our hard-worked P.M. had another busy time at the Magistracy to-day there being some fifty or sixty cases, mostly of lesser import, and the way in which he dealt with them proclaims him the right man in the right place.

The body of a European found on the rocks below Bowen Road on Saturday has not yet been recognized. It is thought from the story of a boy in the Lunatic Asylum that deceased's name was Gamble, a recent arrival from Shanghai, the boy recognizing his clothes. Identification is almost beyond hope as the features are so horribly decomposed.

A CORRESPONDENT of the Times of India relates that a gunner named Davies, stationed at Aden, went to bathe on July 15th with some fellow-soldiers at Sappara's Bay. While standing in a depth of only three feet of water, he had one of his hands and a large portion of the right side of his body bitten clean away by a shark.
The unfortunate fellow succumbed a very few minutes afterwards from loss of blood.

LORD Charles Beresford M.P. has obtained information which he gives as an authoritative statement of the new Russian naval programme. It comprises an extraordinary Budget of 157,000,000 roubles from 1898 to 1903, of which 90,000,000 roubles are ordered in the Ukase of 1898. The ships to be built this year comprise eight battleships, first class; six cruisers, 6,000 tons; 10 cruisers, 3,000 tons; one submarine mine transport, 6,000 tons; one torpedo transport, 3,000 tons; 20 destroyers; 30 torpedo-boats. Of the ships on the stocks one will be delivered in time, but three do not look as if they can be launched this year.

A CHINESE piloting office on Klong Road, close to the premises occupied by the Garfield, collapsed at about 10 o'clock on the morning of the 19th inst., burying six natives under the ruins, three of whom were very severely injured and had to be at once taken to hospital.
We would call the attention of the Council's Inspector of Buildings to this occurrence, the second of the kind which has taken place in the Settlements within a very short space of time. He is paid a large salary for looking after the state of houses and offices in the Settlements, and the energetic discharge of this duty ought well to render an accident such as that which we are now recording impossible. The premises which fell to-day are Chinese owned.—S. Mercury.

The Rev. James Thomson, of Arbroath Parish Church, died at Christ recently in very singular circumstances. Mr. Thomson with his wife cycled on Tuesday afternoon from the village of Comrie to Drummond Castle. On arriving at his destination he felt very thirsty and fatigued.
Observing what he thought was a barrel of water near the road he took a draught of it, but when too late discovered that it was diluted with arsenic, being what is known as weed killer. He was immediately seized with acute pain and vomiting. Assistance being obtained, he was conveyed to Cliffe and the services of Dr. Thom were secured. At first there was every hope of recovery, but after suffering great agony he died on Wednesday. He was a well-known and highly-esteemed clergyman, and sympathy is felt for his wife and three children.

W. F. GILES, for being absent without leave from the British ship Kelso, was to-day fined seven dollars or twenty-eight days and to be put on board at the discretion of the master.

A SENSATIONAL find is reported from Kenowda in the West Australian gold fields. There, about the middle of last month, miners found a nugget of gold weighing over 95 pounds. It is about 19 in long, and 5 in thick at its deepest point, and is almost of pure gold. At both ends there is oxidized iron, and the nugget resembles a stickle head in shape.

At the Harbour Office to-day before the Harbour Master (Comdr. R. M. Ramsey), George Hughes, a fireman on the British steamer Crown of Arragon, was charged with disobeying orders. The Captain deposed that he gave defendant leave on night on the understanding that they should turn to at 6 a.m. next day.
Defendant did not come aboard till 3 or 3 a.m. on Saturday and refused to turn to when ordered by the chief engineer. He again absented himself from the ship. Defendant subsequently refused to work when he came on board and Comdr. Ramsey found him guilty. A letter from Dr. Swan stated that the man was malingering and he was sentenced to nine days' hard labour.

It is stated on good authority the German Government contemplates the construction of "a first-class harbour in Kiaschow Bay, with all the arrangements requisite for modern shipping," also that a town be planned, with every modern improvement. Ching-tao, the present seat of the German administration, is not regarded as a suitable locality for the new town, especially as the bay in that neighbourhood would not meet the requirements of a harbour.
In order to obviate difficulties in the future, land is only allotted to private persons on the condition that, if necessary, it can be repurchased by the Government. As soon as the plans of the new town are completed the definitive and unconditional allotment of land to private individuals will begin.—China Gazette.

News dated the end of June has been received from Major Quentin that forty-one men of the 4th Bombay Rifles, under a native officer, were ambushed near Helibed, a post on the Juba River, in East Africa, by a large body of the enemy. The jemadar and twenty-six men were killed and four wounded. A small party of the enemy appeared on the right and attracted the attention of the troops who dashed after them; and a numerous force hidden in the rear. Major Quentin, commanding the wing of the Regiment, has asked for four hundred men from Mombassa, as the present force is insufficient to hold the posts and guard the convoys. The loss which occurred is believed to have been due to the careless manner in which the native officer allowed the men to march.

The Odesia correspondent of the Standard telegraphs:—Under the heading of "Great British Naval Demonstration in the Baltic," several St. Petersburg papers announce that during the month of August one of the most imposing English squadrons ever seen in northern waters will visit Christiania, Copenhagen and Stockholm. The squadron will, according to the Russian journals, consist of six of the newest British battleships of 14,000 tons each, two of 12,000 tons, and six of 10,000 tons and about twelve or fourteen first class armoured cruisers, with an attendant suite of transports and torpedo-destroyers, about thirty-six vessels altogether. This demonstration, if we may believe the Russian newspaper, is meant for the benefit of Russia, and hence they are not surprised that the colossal squadron will not make a show at Kiel.

The French Government has not only illegally imposed prohibitive duties on British imports into Madagascar, but it has now prohibited the export of furs and some other natural history specimens from Madagascar to any other country than France. This is a fresh illustration of French scientific jealousy and of the paternal protection given by the French Government to its scientific subjects. After the Franco-German war some French naturalists proposed that all German scientific work should be boycotted by other countries. In the same spirit some Parisian naturalists have been trying to ignore foreign contributions to the natural history of Madagascar.
This, however, could not be done, since, as the French proclamation declares, the Madagascar collections in other countries are in some respects better than those in Paris. The French Government has therefore been called to the rescue, and foreign collectors are to be excluded from the island. This illiberal, narrow-minded decree is the more to be regretted as the zoological collections in Paris are not reasonably accessible to students, and the specimens are in many cases not properly protected from decay.

It is reported from Tientsin that the Viceroy Jung Lu has appointed the expectant Taotai Yen Fu to be a member of the newly reconstituted Peking Naval Bureau. Mr. Yen Tsungkuang, as he was then known, was a graduate of the Peking Naval Academy, then under Captain, now Admiral, Richard Tracey. After graduation and some practice as assistant tutor, of navigation in his old Academy, Mr. Yen was appointed an Instructor of technical navigation in the then newly established (1880) Tientsin Naval Academy. After a few years he renounced his Military or rather Naval rank of Lieutenant, and purchased instead a civil button from which he gradually rose until he became Taotai. At this point he was promoted by Li Hung-chang to be Commissioner-in-charge of the institution which he had first entered as an instructor.
Mr. Yen still holds this commissionership and is the only qualified Chinese member of the new Bureau to which in all probability there will also be added, in the near future, a couple or so of English naval officers. Another member of the Bureau is expectant Taotai Pan Chihchun, at one time second Chinese Secretary of Legation, London. Mr. Yen is co-Editor also of the vernacular paper the Kuo-Wen-Pao of Tientsin.

TWO Chinese boatmen charged with exporting one thousand rounds of rifle ammunition, twelve hundred revolver cartridges and eight lots of percussion caps were to-day referred by Captain Hastings to the Harbour-master for trial.

LIEUTENANT T. Warren Sweetenham, East Yorkshire Regiment, while shooting in the wounded panther, which he was following upon foot. His injuries are not reported to be dangerous.—Pioneer.

The statement that has gained some currency that the question of the liability for the collision between the Fian Bart and the Helan Brown was to be arbitrated on by Sir Nicholas Hannen is quite incorrect. It was proposed at one time by Mr. Goodnow, the U.S. Consul-General, who is looking after the interests of the Helan Brown, that the question should be arbitrated on by the Court de Besace, himself, and a third arbitrator to be selected by them, preferably Sir Nicholas Hannen or Mr. Byron Brennan, the British Consul-General. But this was not agreed to, and all the available evidence was taken by the Commission here, as already recorded in these columns, to be adjudicated on by the French Admiralty or, if necessary, the Court of Claims at Paris. Meanwhile the Captain of the Fian Bart has been instructed by the French Admirality to sue the Helan Brown in the U.S. Consular Court, and is only awaiting the formal authorisation of his Admiral before commencing proceedings.—N. C. D. News.

THE TWINNING CONCERTS.
The third of the series of concerts inaugurated by Mr. T. V. Twining took place in St. Andrew's Hall last evening, and was eminently successful.
The attendance was large and the appreciation of the fare provided showed that Mr. Twining had hit the public taste to a nicety. The first item was Handel's beautiful air, "Wait for Angels," in which Mr. Morris displayed his fine voice to excellent advantage, albeit he was not in first class trim owing to a cold. He had a very hearty round of applause, which was well earned. Mr. Emil Dannenberg, a clever young pianist, next played Chopin's "Scherzo in B minor," and his artistic instrumentation won for him a profound round of applause. A lady who figured on the programme as Nurse Alice, and who possesses a sweet mezzo-soprano voice, that fairly captivated her audience; next sang that beautiful song "For all Etern

REVISED INLAND STEAM NAVIGATION REGULATIONS, 1898.

A. REGISTRATION.

1.—The inland waters of China are hereby opened to all steamers, native or foreign, as are specially registered for that trade at the Treaty Ports. They may proceed to and from all under the following regulations, but they must confine their trade to the inland waters, and must not proceed to places out of China territory. The expression "Inland Waters" is used with similar meaning to that given for places in the Interior (Art. 1) in the 4th article of the Chefoo Convention.

2.—Trading steamers, native or foreign, not being vessels of sea-going type, whether plying only in the waters of a Treaty Port, or going thence inland, are to be registered at the Custom House, and there take out papers, showing respectively the owner's name and residence, name and type of steamer, number of crew, etc. They are also to be registered at the Custom House, and there take out papers, showing respectively the owner's name and residence, name and type of steamer, number of crew, etc. They are also to be registered at the Custom House, and there take out papers, showing respectively the owner's name and residence, name and type of steamer, number of crew, etc.

3.—Such registered steamers may ply freely within the waters of the port without reporting their movements to the Customs, but if they go inland they must report both departure and return. No unregistered steamer will be allowed to go inland.

4.—As regards exhibition of lights, prevention of collisions, shipping of crews and inspection of boilers and machinery, etc., all such steamers are to observe the rules in force at the port they belong to. These rules will be published by the Customs and printed on the vessel's Custom papers.

5.—Dutiable cargo shipped under these regulations at any Treaty Port, on a registered steamer for conveyance to the interior, must be declared at the Custom House and pay an export duty as the Customs decide to be leviable. Dutiable cargo brought from inland to a Treaty Port is to be in like manner dealt with by the Customs there. As to the duties to be paid by vessels of foreign merchants, they are to be in accordance with the Treaty Tariff.

6.—Cargo landed or shipped inland is to pay at the place of landing or shipment whatever duty or like local regulations call for. In dealing with the vessels of foreign merchants a procedure analogous to what the Treaty Tariff calls for is to be followed.

7.—If each steamer have vessels in tow, they must bring in at whatever light stations the vessels towed are required to stop at for inspection, and for the respective cargoes of both vessels to be dealt with as the local rules prescribe. The rules to be enforced on foreign merchants must be in accordance with Treaty provisions, and as will be published in full by the Customs. Unregistered steamers are not permitted to tow vessels on the Yangtze.

8.—Officers inland whether against revenue laws or affecting persons or property, are to be dealt with by the local authorities of the district in the same way as if they were committed by their own people; but if the vessel concerned is foreign owned or the Chinese implicated in a Chinese employed on board such foreign owned vessel, the local authorities are to communicate with the nearest Commissioner of Customs, and the Commissioner in turn with the Consul, who may send a deputy to watch the proceedings. If the offender claims the status of a foreigner, he is to be treated in the manner prescribed in the Treaty where foreigners without passports are arrested and sent to the proper Consul through the Commissioner of Customs at the nearest port.

9.—If any such steamer passes any inland station or light barrier that ought to be stopped at without stopping, or if any of the passengers, crew, etc., create trouble inland, the vessel may be fined or punished according to the station regulations, and the Customs may cancel the vessel's papers and refuse permission for her to trade inland again. In cases where foreign-owned vessels are concerned, the merchant interested may elect to bring the whole case and the question of fine and confiscation promulgated in the year 1868.

The above rules are for the inauguration of steam traffic, and suffice for the time being; if hereafter it is found that changes are necessary, they can be made from time to time as required.

Notes.—These regulations, as will be seen by the last paragraph, are still more or less provisional, and it will be noticed that there is no special provision for the collection by inspectors of property in the interior for the purposes of constructing the necessary wharves and godowns. We presume that Articles IX and XII of the Treaty of Tientsin will govern this matter.

ICHANG.

(From our own Correspondent.)

BURNING OF A MISSION BOAT IN HUNAN.
We learn with regret of the burning of the boat belonging to the Alliance Mission in Hunan. It was being used by Messrs. Chapin and Alexander who had started from Shanghai on a trip up the river, and had been at the new station. They were in a large market, Hanchang, some sixty miles from Kueichow, when the burning took place. This is the city where the brave Dowd had a house rented some years ago. It is reported that the officials apparently did all they could and were quick to make amends so far as they were able, but as the boat was specially constructed under Mr. Chapin's supervision, it cannot be replaced. A letter to a friend here written some days before the burning tells of some rough experiences, but in spite of all, their sales were large; about a thousand each a day and all from Gospels, as they were not able to get tracts.

THE DANGERS OF THE RIVER.
There has been another dawning, chargeable to the swift current. Four men with some goods and some twenty thousand cash were in a sampan bound for the Changlo on the night of her departure last trip. In some manner the sampan was overturned and only one managed to escape. Boarding a steamer there at present is no child's play. The Customs crew is quite expert at it but even they will not attempt it at night now. The day before yesterday the water was over the Bund, within a few feet of high water mark. The Shast and Killing could not anchor upon arrival. After discharging the mails and passengers they dropped down the river to a safe place until the water fell several feet.

THE WEATHER. has been quite trying during the month of July and thus far in August, excepting a few days at the latter end of July, when rain and clouds caused a drop of some thirty degrees (maximum).
PERSONAL NOTES.
Our obliging Consul Mr. Holland, Miss Smith of the Scotch Mission, and Mr. and Tomkinson of the China Inland Mission are at present recuperating at Kuling. Mr. Clennell looks after British interests during Mr. Holland's absence.

Mr. Rowell recently transferred to the Shast, Customs, had the misfortune to have his boat wrecked before he reached his station. Another boat was sent him as soon as possible and he returned home in comfortably housed again by this time.

Mr. T. A. Clifton, late of Hunan, has joined Mr. Bruce for the work in Hunan under C.I.M. auspices. They plan to make Changli their headquarters and to establish the work there as well as in the surrounding districts.

We are surprised to hear that Commissioner Ohlmer has been transferred to another post, at present unknown to us. It will be remembered that Mr. Ohlmer has been here but a few weeks. The best wishes of the many friends they have made during their brief stay go with Mr. and Mrs. Ohlmer and their little Mr. Kalle. Mr. C. T. Bowring, recently from a foreign home, is the successor. Mr. and Mrs. Clarke of the C. I. M. Kueichow province, passed through a short time ago. Mr. Clarke has been at work among the aborigines and has succeeded in reducing their language to writing. After attending a meeting of the New Testament revision committee he will leave for England to take a needed rest.—N. C. D. News.

STORM IN SHANGHAI.

POWDER EXPLOSION.

Shanghai, August 19th.
A thunderstorm of unusual severity accompanied by vivid lightning and a heavy rainfall over Shanghai shortly after 11 p.m. on 18th night, and although a strong wind was blowing, we have heard of no damage in the Settlement. During the height of the storm, when the air seemed to have been surcharged with electricity the Electric Company's wires were struck by lightning, resulting in the burning of two dynamos in the electric light works at Yuhang Road, due to it being believed, there being an insufficiency of lightning arresters on the circuits. No damage is reported from any dwelling houses with electric installations. Owing to the insulation of the wires having been torn off by birds and otherwise damaged, the men from the electric department were busily engaged in stripping the wires this morning with a view to re-covering them. We learn from Sclawel that at 11.30, shortly after the commencement of the storm, lightning struck two boats loaded with gunpowder in a canal near the Loowoo Powder factory, the shock occasioned by the explosion being felt at Sclawel. The six or seven men in charge of the boats were blown to pieces and not a vestige of the boats remained. The houses in the vicinity were badly shaken, and the shock was felt in Shanghai itself, where some thought it might have been an earthquake.

KOREAN NOTES.

From the Seoul Independent we take the following:
The trial of the political prisoners has been suspended for a week, owing to the absence of the Minister and Vice Minister of Law, all because some fool, a Ko Yung-jung, memorized the throne to the effect that they are not conducting the trial properly.

We are in receipt of a pair of scissors sent us by our friend Molayo. On the card accompanying the suggestive instrument we find the following words: "Dear Editor: When inspiration languishes in perspiration, keep your scissors sharp as your head grows dull." We are grateful for the advice and the timely gift.

General Tsing Nakyoung, the first president of the Oriental (Editorial) Club, was on the 24th expelled from the association on account of his bad character in general and his unparliamentary (reported in the Kanjo Shimpō) in particular. There are now two sets of memorialists kneeling before the new Palace gate. One prays that the property which once belonged to Confucian temples throughout the land and which was sometimes so transferred to the Educational Department should be restored to the temples. The object of the other memorialists is that Confucius should be more honored. We do not know exactly what the memorialists mean but we do know that money has been and can be requested from people all over the country on the pretext of restoring the Confucian temples, etc. In other words, honoring Confucius often, say invariably, means, in Korea, dishonoring him by collecting money to fill some body's sleeves. At any rate, these disinterested scholars who now clamour for showing more honor to the sage are all provided with suspiciously big sleeves.

The present magistrate of Kinswa, Yi Won-kun, has a very obscure origin, his parents being once the public players of that magistracy. He has two brothers of whom, one was executed as a robber and the other fled to some parts unknown after committing a murder. Yi served some years in the magistracy's Yamen in the capacity of a "runner." Becoming possessed of a devil, he came to Seoul pretending to be a "heavenly spirit" sent to the world with the gift of predicting the evil or good fortunes of the suffering humanity. With powers so marvellous it is but natural that he should have found favour in the sight of somebody in the Palace. The fortunate adventurer was soon made the ruler of his native magistracy. He not only dedicated a fine temple to the god who has helped him; but built himself a good house out of the timber belonging to the government. We are informed by the Mat-Hi Shumun that he pocketed the money paid by the government for telegraph poles (80 cents a pole), giving to the owners of the poles only 10 cents each out of the local treasury. One of his favourite means of extorting money is, according to our Seoul contemporary, to imprison a man on some charge, no matter what, and then release him on payment of a bribe. Recently a timid fellow thus imprisoned, unable to pay $100, was so frightened that he committed suicide. This is bad enough; yet we fear that Yi Won-kun is but one of the many scoundrels who are turning harmless and helpless peasants into desperate robbers all over the land.

THE JAPAN RICE HARVEST.

The prospects of the rice harvest, says the Yokohama Mail, are said to be very good. Accurate estimates are not possible, of course, but information collected officially from various quarters is interpreted to indicate a probable yield of 41,310,000 koku, as against an average crop of 37,340,000 koku. Last year's crop was only 33,000,000 koku. It follows, therefore, that our Yokohama contemporary, that if this forecast be verified by events, the farmers will find themselves, at the end of the year, richer by about 124 million yen than they were at the end of 1897, and 59 million yen richer than they would be at the end of an average year. These figures are suggestive. They show how insignificant the question of increasing the Land Tax is compared with the quality of the harvest. Count Inouye's proposal would have added 18 million yen to the tax paid by owners of rice lands. In other words, the difference between a good crop and an average crop of rice is 41 times greater than the additional tax that Count Inouye would have imposed. Another point is worth noting: The value of 41 million koku of rice, at 16 yen per koku, is 656 million yen, and the tax upon agricultural land is 36 millions. In round numbers, hence the tax is 1/17 of the rice crop, omitting all the other produce of the soil—barley, wheat, millet, mulberry, tea, root crops, cotton, hemp, tobacco, etc. Yet there are men who venture to tell the Japanese land-owner that he pays as much to the State as he did in feudal days when the daimyo took 25 of the rice crop. Two-fifths of 40 million koku of rice represent 240 million yen, and the tax is 36 millions.

NEW RUSSIAN SERVICE.

Application is said to have been made to the St. Petersburg Ministry of Trade and the Minister of the Interior for the incorporation of a Russo-Pacific Steam Navigation Company, to undertake a service to the Far East, including the Indian and Chinese ports. Ample funds are available, and, if permission be secured, the undertakers will at once give orders for the purchase of two vessels of 3,000 tons each, to begin the service, and will order the building of four other boats of the same tonnage. In the event of the service official sanction being secured, the orders for the steamers will be placed in the United Kingdom.

THE NEW FRENCH REMEDY.

THERAPION.

This successful and highly popular remedy, as employed in the Continental Hospitals by Ricord, Rostan, Jobert, Velpeau, and others, combines all the desiderata to be sought in a medicine of the kind, and surpasses everything hitherto employed.

THERAPION No. 1, in a few days only, removes all discharges from the urinary organs, effectually superseding injections, the use of which does irreparable harm by laying the foundation of stricture and other serious diseases. In dysentery, piles, irritation of the lower bowel, cough, bronchitis, asthma, and some of the more trying complaints of this kind, it will be found astonishingly efficacious, affording prompt relief where other well-tried remedies have been powerless.

THERAPION No. 2, for impurity of the blood, secures, plumper, spots, blotches, paler and swellings of the joints, secondary symptoms, disease of the bones, sore throat, and all diseases for which it has been too much a fashion to employ mercury, sarsaparilla, &c., to the destruction of the sufferer's teeth and ruin of health. This preparation purifies the whole system through the blood, and thoroughly eliminates every poisonous matter from the body.

THERAPION No. 3, for nervous exhaustion, waste of vitality, and all the distressing consequences arising from early error, excess, residence in hot, unhealthy climates, &c. It possesses surprising power in restoring strength and vigour to the debilitated.

THERAPION may be procured at 2/6 and 4/6 per package, of the principal Chemists and Merchants throughout the world. In ordering, the purchaser should state which of the three numbers he requires, and observe that the word "THERAPION" appears on the Government Stamp (in white letters on a red ground) affixed to every genuine package by order of Her Majesty's Hon. Commissioners, and without which it is a forgery.
